BEACH TRAGEDY IS STILL A MYSTERY

DEAD MAN FOUND ON BEACH
STILL UNIDENTIFIED; MAY BE CONNECTED WITH DEAD WOM-AN FOUND IN HOTEL.

With the police of San Francisco and San Mateo county working on the case for two days, the identity of the man found dead in the surf at Thornton Beach, several miles south of the San Mateo county line, remains a mystery. The body was discovered by Thomas Crawford, keeper of the lighthouse at Thornton, at about 3 o'clock p. m. Wednesday. Crawford notified Constable Landini at Daly City, and the officer and Deputy Coroner Lasswell went to the scene and brought the man's body to the Lasswell undertaking parlors.

The man was young, apparently about 25 years of age, and well dressed. There was a bullet hole in the right temple, the bullet having emerged just above the left ear. Up and down the beach near the body were footprints made, it seemed, by the man and a woman companion. No trace has yet been found of the woman. The footprints seemed to indicate that the two had struggled at several places, and one theory is that the man was intent on suicide and the woman struggled with him in an attempt to wrest the gun from his hands. The body bore evidence, according to Dr. Rankin of Daly City, of having been in the water about eight hours.

Coming so soon after the mysterious murder of Mrs. Ruby Allen, a young woman whose body was found in the Knickerbocker Hotel in San Francisco, dead from strangulation, the police are working on a theory that Mrs. Allen may have been the woman whose tracks showed on the beach. Little has yet been found, however, to connect the two tragedies. All marks on the man's clothing that might lead to identification had been removed.

Crawford, who found the man's body on the beach, states that he saw a man and woman walking on the

ARMISTICE DAY COMM. MEETS AND ORGANIZES

The committee on arrangements for the city hall dedication and Armistice Day celebration held a meeting at the city hall Wednesday night and laid plans for the big day, November 11th. The committee is composed of four sub-committees, these being from the city trustees, Woman's Club, American Legion, and Chamber of Commerce.

It was the opinion of all members of the committee that this celebration should be such as to make it a red-letter day in the history of South San Francisco.

There will be a parade, to which all fraternal organizations and business houses as well as individuals will be asked to contribute floats, decorated autos, and marching bodies. A band will be engaged. Concessions will be sold for refreshment and amusement booths, and the return from these will, it is believed, go far toward paying the expenses of the day. One or more eminent speakers will be on hand to speak at the exercises that will take place on the steps leading up to the hall.

The following committees were appointed to take charge of the details of arrangements:

Reception and Program—Mrs. E. C. Peck, Miss Margaret Kauffmann, Andrew Hynding, W. J. Martin, E. E. Cunningham, J. W. Coleberd, and J. O. Snyder.

Parade and Decoration—Mrs. J. G. Walker, Mrs. C. Winterhalter, Mrs. W. J. Martin, Mrs. J. O. Snyder, Dr. J. C. McGovern, L. G. Hardy Jr., F. A. Cunningham, L. E. Adams.

Publicity—P. R. Thompson, Ambrose McSweeney, E. C. Peck, A. J. Eschelbach, and Robert Speed.

These committees will arrange details for the day and meet again next Thursday to report.

CITY FATHERS AGREE ON DEDICATION DATE

Will Combine Forces With American Legion for Rousing Celebration on Armistice Day.

A considerable audience confronted the city trustees when they met at the city hall Monday night, delegations from the Woman's Club, American Legion and Chamber of Commerce being present to talk over the matter of the dedication of the city hall with the city fathers. Talks on this subject were made by Mrs. J. G. Walker, Mrs. C. Winterhalter, W. J. Martin, Andrew Hynding, Pat Bowler, and Fred Schmidt. The upshot of the conference was that it was definitely decided to hold the city hall dedication in conjunction with the local American Legion post's celebration of Armistice Day, November 11th. The matter of program for the big day was left up to a combined committee consisting of committees from the trustees, Woman's Club, and Legion, which agreed to meet Wednesday night.

A communication was received from the city trustees of Chico, Calif., inviting the local board to attend the convention of the League of Municipalities at that city. The letter stated a good program of entertainment was being planned and would include a big duck stew. City Clerk McSweeney, City Attorney J. W. Coleberd, Health Officer Dr. J. C. McGovern, and City Engineer George Kneese were appointed to attend the gathering.

A letter was received from the Pacific Gas and Electric Company stating that because of recent rains all restrictions on the use of electric power were lifted and that city lights had been on full time since October 15th. Another from the same company asked permission to erect poles on the alley off Linden avenue between Armour and Juniper. This was granted.

Miss Cora Rackle, city nurse, filed a report of her work for September. This report contained many interesting items and will be published in full in next week's Enterprise.

The local lodge of Red Men asked permission to hold a dance November 6th and McCaffery Post of the Legion a dance for October 23d. Both requests were granted.

Several bills against the city were audited and ordered paid.

ALL POWER RESTRICTIONS ARE NOW DISCONTINUED

Sunday night's heavy downpour has relieved the power companies of northern and central California of further need of rigid power restrictions, said State Power Administrator H. G. Butler, following an announcement that the ban made necessary by power shortage has been entirely lifted. Butler notified the United Railroads and the municipal line of San Francisco that they could discontinue the skip-stop system put into effect as one of the means of conserving power.

After the first heavy rain Butler lifted the restriction on the use of power for display and sign lighting, but ordered that the skip-stops be maintained for a while longer or until all danger of power shortage was over.

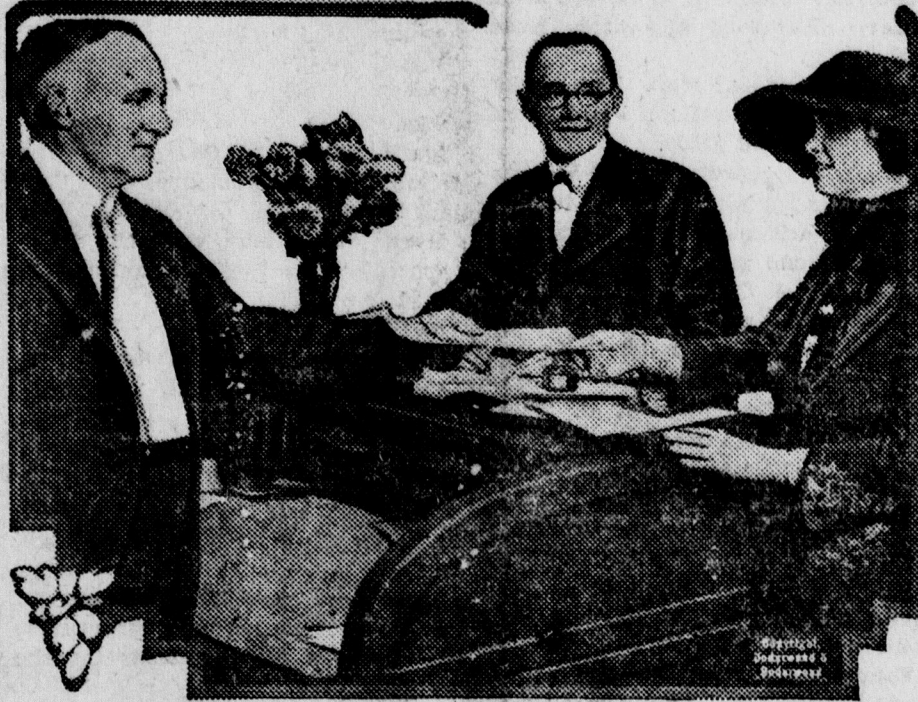

"The situation in the state from the power standpoint," said Butler, "following Sunday night's rainstorm is satisfactory, and there is no longer any need for curtailing the use of electricity."

TIMOTHY BOWEN DIES LEAVING WIFE AND SMALL CHILDREN

Timothy Bowen, aged 35 years, for about six years a resident of South San Francisco and for five years an employee of the local steel mill, died in this city Tuesday of lobar pneumonia. About a week ago Bowen was stricken with paralysis. The case is believed to have been caused by a wife and three small children, the youngest a baby only a few weeks old. The funeral took place this morning from the Nieri undertaking parlors. Mass was said at All Souls' Church at 9:45, and burial followed at Holy Cross Cemetery.

The deceased was a member of the local lodge of Moose and of Panama-Pacific Exposition Lodge of the Steelworkers.

Casting First Presidential Votes

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Dowling of Dayton, Ohio, claim the honor of having cast the first votes in the coming presidential election. They expect to be in Japan November 2, and appeared on October 2, the 30-day limit on advance voting, and the clerk of the board of elections handed them their ballots, as he is shown doing.

PIPE AND STEEL CO. INSTALLING EQUIPMENT

Old Schaw-Batcher Yards to Be One of Biggest Pipe Plants.

Friends of Charles Mourmon, former superintendent at the shipyards of the Schaw-Batcher Company and for some time a resident of South San Francisco, have been glad to welcome him back within the last few days. He returns to this city as one of the head officials of the Western Pipe and Steel Company, the concern which has taken over the Schaw-Batcher yards. Mr. Mourmon is an executive of great administrative ability and recently returned from the East, where he was in charge of the organization of a plant for his company.

The Western Pipe and Steel Company is now engaged in moving equipment from its plant at Richmond to this city. It will engage here in the manufacture of pipe and steel tanks. A large quantity of new and up-to-date equipment is to be installed, according to Mr. Mourmon, and when fully in working order the plant will be one of the largest and best equipped of its kind on the coast. It will employ from 250 to 300 men.

COUNTY RED CROSS CHAPTER TO MEET AT BURLINGAME

The annual meeting of the San Mateo county chapter of the American Red Cross will be held Thursday evening, October 28th, at 8 o'clock, in the Burlingame Woman's Club house.

The purpose of this meeting is the election of officers for the coming year, the consideration of reports from officers and committees, and a general discussion of the future plans of the Red Cross in San Mateo county. There will be special speakers and all are urged to attend.

POWER RESTRICTIONS ORDERED TERMINATED

All restrictions against the use of power have been removed by State Power Administrator H. G. Butler. Recent rains have made possible the lifting of the ban, and there will be no return to the restrictions unless there is a dry fall. In this event the power companies and the public will again be placed on a limited allowance of electricity.

All power companies in northern and central California were notified by Butler that "business as usual" would be allowed and that they could proceed in the conduct of their affairs free from the rigid restrictions of the last few weeks. Not since last June, when the need for power conservation became apparent, have the power companies been free from strict regulation.

LOCAL MASONS SEE CEREMONY AT MOUNTAIN VIEW TUESDAY

About twenty members of the local lodge of Masons journeyed to Mountain View Tuesday evening to attend an initiation ceremony held at that place. About 300 members of the fraternity were present. Work in the third degree was put on, after which a big "spread" was enjoyed by all.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT AT SILVER-LEAD MINE

Shaft Ninety Feet Deep and Drifts Both Ways Show Rich Mineral.

The silver mine on the hill above South San Francisco has of late inspired several news stories that have appeared in San Francisco papers as well as in papers in San Mateo county. These stories have been of varying degrees of truth and exaggeration, one picturing South San Francisco as a mining camp. Several have stated that operations started here only a few weeks ago and have been carried on under a cloak of mystery.

All this is twaddle. A story appeared in the Enterprise of March 12th that preliminary work had begun on the prospect. April 2d another story was published telling of the rich ore that was uncovered within a few feet of the surface, and May 14th still another stating that the ore was increasing in richness as the shaft deepened. Other stories have appeared in The Enterprise from time to time. Beside this, hundreds of persons have visited the mine and many have gone down in the shaft. There has been no secrecy at any time.

The sinking of a prospect shaft on the hilltop north of the high school started March 15th of this year. The outcropping of galena or silver-lead ore had been discovered in the rock ledge on the hill some months before that by T. V. Barton, present manager of the operations at the shaft and of the company now engaged in developing the prospect he found. Since that time a shaft has been sunk about ninety feet and side drifts made to an extent of 150 feet. All this is to test the extent of the ore body and to determine whether such ore is there in sufficient quantity to justify extensive operations. So far almost every foot of the way has been dug through ore of different degrees of richness, but all rich. Not only galena has been found in abundance, but also large quantities of zinc. The side drifts will be continued for some time yet to assure the backers of the enterprise beyond all question of doubt that the ore is there in sufficient quantity. At present and so far as the work has yet gone there are the brightest prospects that South San Francisco has a rich silver and lead deposit within its corporate limits.

IN THE COURT OF JUDGE J. J. DOWD

Jacinto Santos, Mexican, was up before Judge Dowd last Friday for disturbing the peace. Santos got hilarious at the Hotel Normand and was arrested by City Marshal Conrad. He was given fifty days in jail.

G. Gustafson was taken in at San Bruno and Grand avenues October 17th and appeared before his honor the same day. Drunk and disorderly was the charge. He got ten days.

G. Grandahl came before the judge for disturbing the peace, but his case was dismissed for lack of evidence.

Wednesday Walter Schretz of San Francisco was arrested for reckless driving. "Guilty" said Schretz; "$20" said the judge.

SUPERVISORS MEET IN REGULAR SESSION

Routine Business Occupies Time and Resolutions on Death of Francis Adopted.

The county supervisors met in regular session Monday. At this meeting the petition for the annexation of certain uninhabited tracts in the town of Hillsborough was taken up and, there being no objections, the petition was granted.

A petition from Alexander Hamilton and others was received, asking that the board repair the Las Pulgas road in the Third township. The petition was ordered filed.

A communication was received from the Victory Live Stock Company advising the board that it had two suitable sites for its hog ranch in the north end on the Leipsic place, two and one-third miles from Colma, and the other on the Risso ranch, three and one-half miles from Colma. The communication was ordered filed.

A number of claims belonging to the Fourth road district were allowed.

The following resolution on the death of Supervisor Francis was read and adopted:

Joseph M. Francis was born in Halfmoon Bay, San Mateo county, but forty-eight years ago. There he spent his childhood and grew to manhood. There he married and reared and loved his family. There he served and was loved, and there tenderly couched in sunshine and flowers we left him to eternity.

We here attempt not to chronicle the events of his life, we seek but to recognize as only in a measure we can the quantity and beauty of his character.

Whole-souled, big-hearted, generous, honest, loyal, true; loyal to friend, genuine in every contact with his fellows, firmly anchored in principle—Joe Francis, as we lovingly knew him, was a man, a citizen, an official; a husband, a father, a neighbor that we could all afford to lose.

For twelve years he served his county and state as supervisor of his home district. Once elected, he was never opposed. For two years he presided over this board as its chairman. During the period of his incumbency the county has prospered and developed from the commonplace to a position of prominence in its improvements and the standard of its government.

In his home community Mr. Francis and his neighbors worked together for good. He had the respect and confidence of every man, woman and child. While he never recognized it himself, he, in fact, was a leader. Whether as merchant, banker, official, or whether engaged in civic or patriotic duty, or while perhaps relaxing with his fellows on hill or stream, he was always the same jovial, big-hearted, unselfish Joe.

It was just in the fullness of his life and work that he was stricken and taken from the community he loved and served so well.

Whereas, therefore, this board of supervisors, in regular session assembled, is desirous of permanently recording this work or recognition of the beautiful character and valued work of its colleague.

Be it resolved and ordered, that this statement be spread upon the minutes of this board and made a permanent record thereof.

In witness whereof, we, as, members of and constituting the board of supervisors of San Mateo county, California, have hereunto affixed our signatures this 18th day of October, 1920.

JOHN MACBAIN,
ROSALIE M. BROWN,
C. V. THOMPSON,
T. L. HICKEY.

NEAL SULLIVAN INJURED IN FOOTBALL GAME SATURDAY

Neal Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sullivan of this city, broke the small bone of one leg and sprained an ankle in a football game between Cogswell Polytechnic College and Oakland high school last Saturday. He is able to be about on crutches, but will be confined to his home for some time. Neal is a student at Cogswell.

MEMORIAL HALL PLANS BEING MATURED

COMMITTEE FROM AMERICAN LEGION MEETS "CIVILIAN" COMMITTEE AND TELLS OF NOVEL PLANS FOR FUNDS.

The plan of Bernard McCaffery Post of the American Legion to erect a fine memorial hall in South San Francisco to the soldiers and sailors of this region who gave their lives in the great war took new impetus Tuesday night at a meeting held at the city hall. At this gathering the "civilian committee of nine" chosen by the members of the post to assist in an advisory capacity were present and had laid before them the plans of the Legion committee that has been working on the proposition for many weeks. This civilian committee consists of T. L. Hickey, Daniel McSweeney, W. H. Coffinberry, W. J. Martin, Dr. F. S. Dolley, A. J. Eschelbach, Dr. F. H. Smith, J. O. Snyder, and Dr. J. C. McGovern.

One of the features of the plan as advanced by the Legion committee that met with the special approval of the civilian committee was to so finance the scheme that the building of the hall would be less of a burden on the business men and the taxpayers than are most movements for funds. It was brought out that the money could be raised, if necessary, over a considerable period of time. There will be no "drive" or direct campaign for funds. Many novel ideas for the raising of the money have been developed by the Legion committee and will be announced later. One feature is to get as much money as possible from the "floating" population that pays little or no taxes and is usually reluctant to help in any civic betterment movement.

The district covered by the local post of the Legion includes Daly City, Colma, Visitacion Valley, South San Francisco and San Bruno. From this district a "holding committee" of eighteen will be selected to manage the financial end of the proposition. Circulars stating just what a memorial hall is and why one should be erected in this American Legion district will be placed in the hands of residents of the towns mentioned in the near future. The "offensive" against the dollar for the benefit of the building fund will be started Armistice Day.

S. F. YOUTHS WRECK CAR AT FULLER PLANT

Two San Francisco youths, Harry and John Courtland, 19 and 21 years of age, overturned and badly wrecked a fine new Chandler automobile near the Fuller paint plant Thursday evening about 8 o'clock. After the accident Dr. R. S. Irvine of South San Francisco was called to the scene and took the two boys to the South San Francisco Hospital. It was found there that they were not seriously injured and Dr. Irvine took them to their home at 63 Shipley street, San Francisco. One of the pair admitted that he was driving the car while under the influence of liquor. The machine apparently somersaulted into the ditch and only by a miracle did the two escape serious injury or death. The number of the car is 413319, and as the state auto records reveal that it is registered in the name of R. A. Eitel of 34 Fremont street, San Francisco, local officers are working on the theory that the machine was stolen.

TOMMY CARMODY STRUCK BY HEYMAN AUTOMOBILE

Tommy Carmody, the little son of James Carmody, had a narrow escape from serious injury this morning when he was struck by a passing auto and knocked to the pavement. The car belonged to Heyman Bros. realty dealers of San Francisco, and was driven by Oscar Heyman. The boy is not seriously injured.

LAUTZE SECURES FORD AGENCY FOR SAN BRUNO

Fred Lautze, proprietor of the Depot Garage in South San Francisco, now has on display at his garage a Fordson tractor, the efficient little traction engine manufactured by the Ford Motor Company. This is the first Fordson tractor to be received here, Mr. Lautze having only recently secured the local agency for this machine. The Fordson has proven a wonderful success since it was first placed upon the market a few years ago. It has made a place for itself in the agricultural world similar to that held by the Ford car in the business world.

Mr. Lautze has made a striking success of the local Ford agency, having placed cars as fast as he could get them. The Ford company recently recognized his enterprise by appointing him agent for San Bruno, Lomita Park, and Millbrae. Within a day or two after being assigned this territory Mr. Lautze placed two cars in his new district, one with E. Maffei of Lomita Park and one with William Glasscow of Millbrae. Mr. Lautze has appointed the Cabin Garage at San Bruno as his local sub-agent.

SAN MATEO LEGION TO DANCE.

The San Mateo post of the American Legion has announced a "Camouflage" dance for November 10th at the San Mateo high school gymnasium. All are invited and requested to come masked.

TWO DIE WHEN AIRPLANE FALLS 200 FEET AT REDWOOD

Frances E. Lee, a Chinese girl flying machine pilot, and John Fourtney, flyer and builder of aeroplanes, were killed Thursday about noon when the airship in which they were flying fell to the ground at Redwood City. The plane was a new one and was being given its initial tryout. It had been manufactured by Fourtney at his plant at Menlo Park. Miss Lee was instantly killed and Fourtney died a few minutes later at the Redwood City Hospital.

Both flyers were pilots of long experience. When the machine was some 200 feet from earth one of its wings was seen to crumple up. The plunge followed.

Which Class Are You In?

Generally speaking there are four classes of individuals:

1. The one who must be told what to do, how to do it, and must be checked up in the doing of it.
2. The one who must be told what to do, how to do it, but who is so thorough as not to need to be checked up in the doing of it.
3. The one who must be told what to do, but who is resourceful enough not to need to be told how to do it, and who is so thorough as not to need to be checked up in the doing of it.
4. The one to whom a general policy may be given, and who is resourceful enough not to need to be told what to do or how to do it or to be checked up in the doing of it.—The Open Road.

Californians, Do You Still Love Your Liberty?

The State Prohibition Act (commonly referred to as the Harris Bill) will appear upon the November election ballot as Proposition Number 2.

It applies only to California and is perhaps the most drastic enforcement law that has been proposed in the United States.

If enacted it means that California will be absolutely, positively and forever a prohibition State.

The Volstead Act may be amended to permit the use of light wines and beers in other States in the Union.

California could not and would not enjoy this right if Proposition Number 2 carries.

If the State Prohibition Enforcement Act becomes a law light wines and beers and personal liberty are gone forever in California.

THREE NIGHTS IN A BAZAAR!

St. Bruno's Parish Bazaar will open in Cheetham's Hall, San Bruno, on Thursday evening, October 28th, be continued on Friday evening the 29th, and hopes to close in a blaze of glory, figuratively speaking (not otherwise, we trust), on Saturday evening October 30th. Gaily decorated booths displaying a wealth of beautiful and useful articles will charm the eyes of all visitors to the bazaar. Admission will be free and everybody is cordially invited.

An ELABORATE, FULL-COURSE CHICKEN DINNER will be served Saturday evening, October 30th, commencing at SIX O'CLOCK. Price of the dinner will be ONE DOLLAR; children under 14, FIFTY CENTS. Reservations for the dinner can be made by applying to Mrs. Virginia Caetano, San Bruno 207-W. Light refreshments will be obtainable on Thursday and Friday evenings.

The Fagundes orchestra will furnish the music Saturday evening, from 8 to 12. Badges, for gentlemen who desire to dance, will be 50 cents. Ladies will not need badges.

Remember the TIME: Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, October 28th, 29th and 30th. And THE PLACE: Cheetham's Hall, at the junction of San Mateo avenue and the State Highway, San Bruno.

WARM MEALS FOR CHILDREN

That the Edgemont school will have a cafeteria established for the children was decided upon at the regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday afternoon. This is felt to be a much-needed addition to the school, especially through the rainy weather. The mothers were unanimous in deciding the question, and many volunteered to help with the work each day, which will be under the management of Mrs. J. Callaghy.

Extensive planning is being done for the whist party and entertainment to be given at California Hall, November 13th, the proceeds of which will go toward the benefit of the school playground equipment. Mrs. H. C. Tardy of Oakland spoke in a clear and concise manner, setting forth the aims of the association and of the wonderful opportunities to help in so many ways. Mrs. Tardy is president of the second district of the California Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations and is an enthusiastic leader. Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey spoke of the advantages of the school nurse and also of the dental clinic which San Mateo county is looking forward to. The question of a school nurse is being discussed and much interest was taken in Mr. Hickey's remarks.

Mrs. Smith, the kindergarten teacher, spoke on the sixteenth amendment and carried the audience with her. Mrs. W. G. Fahy, president of the Lomita Park Parent-Teacher Association, and Mrs. Collins, principal of the Lomita Park school, each spoke briefly upon how we could help each other and by co-operation secure more help and advancement for our community. After a careful count of the members present the party was again awarded to Miss Jones' room, eighteen mothers being present who represented her room.

KEPT OUT OF WAR, NOW SERVES COX

Publisher's Son Escaped Military Service Through Democratic Nominee's Influence.

Young, able-bodied, rich, a strapping big fellow, who possessed all the physical equipment of an American soldier, save, evidently, heart, Robert P. Scripps was kept out of the war through Administration influences. He was exempted. The local draft board of Butler County, O., rejected his plea and held that there was no valid claim for his exemption and that he should surely don a uniform and shoulder arms, but Secretary of War Baker's law partner, Tom Sidlo, was employed to save the youthful slacker. Governor Cox took a hand in the case, and finally, by White House decree, he went scot free. His multi-millionaire father, E. W. Scripps, controlling owner of the Scripps League of Newspapers and the Newspaper Enterprise Association, a powerful combination, threatened to overthrow the Administration rather than permit either of his sons to answer the call of Uncle Sam.

Administration Exempts Slacker. Having helped to re-elect Woodrow Wilson President on the issue, "He kept us out of war," the elder Scripps demanded that his sons be kept out of war. And the Administration kept them out.

Young Robert Scripps, who had never done any real newspaper work, was given the title of Assistant to the Publisher of the Scripps League of Newspapers to create an excuse for his exemption. Finally he was ordered home from Camp Sherman by Governor Cox, after he had been in uniform for ten days.

All these facts and more of an equally astounding and discreditable character were brought out by the Kenyon Senatorial Committee, which subpoenaed young Scripps to Washington to explain his activities in the present campaign.

Now Supporting Cox.

He is today editor in chief of the Scripps League of Newspapers and the Newspaper Enterprise Association and is putting out daily pink propaganda sheets of a lurid and sensational character in support of the candidacy of Governor Cox.

Samples of these sheets were submitted to the committee, and Senator Reed, Democrat, frankly denounced the propaganda as "rot" and manifested extreme impatience and disgust with the young man's loose talk about a "Senate oligarchy" and criticism of the Supreme Court.

Young Scripps, although he did not fight for his country in 1917-18, insisted that he was doing it all through love of country and in the "public interest," without any pay from the Democratic committee or thought of obligation for keeping him out of war.

The draft-dodging aspects of the case, as brought out at Washington, are not unlike those of young Bergdoll of Philadelphia, which resulted in a Federal prosecution for conspiracy to evade the draft.

Fifth Cousin Roosevelt devoted his speech at Providence, R. I., to a defense of eight years of Democratic administration. Six weeks is a very short time for doing much along that line.

The Cox slogan seems to be "Misrepresentation Without Relaxation."

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS.

Mrs. E. Tose entertained a number of friends at her home on Thursday evening. The evening was spent at music and playing games. Refreshments were served. Those present were: Marie Strong, Margaret Thompson, Marie Burns, Alice Wackerman, Mary Wackerman, Dorothy Stearns, Alice Stearns, Mrs. Walter Griffin, Mrs. H. C. McIntosh, Walter Benton, Ray Wackerman, Newell Stearns, Phillip Tose, Mr. and Mrs. T. Tose and daughter, Phyllis.

Squeezed.

The handsome young woman, having reached the street corner, seemed not quite sure which direction to take. A masher, who had been following her, seized his opportunity, approached her and said, "Er-beg pardon, but you seem in doubt where you want to go."

She gave him a crushing glance. "Indeed?" she said. "Well, I'm not in doubt where I want you to go."

He left suddenly.—Boston Transcript.

Not Expert.

Mrs. Mary Rudolphus, who has been ill at a San Francisco hospital, returned to her home Wednesday feeling much improved in health, which will be pleasing news to her many friends hereabouts.

Silvio Rosaia, who recently returned from a visit with brothers at Seattle, has gone into the flower business in San Francisco. Rosaia purchased a new Dodge truck during the week.

Nick Gill of San Francisco is making progress on a ranch which he and Frank Ferretti recently purchased. After another harvest, young Gill contemplates buying another ranch of his own.

Joseph Cavalli, the popular blacksmith on the highway near Holy Cross Cemetery, and several friends spent the week on a duck hunting trip in Yolo county. All reported having a good time and returned with the limit.

Ellsworth Williams, the oldest son of E. C. Williams, who is being employed by the Southern Pacific Company as ticket agent at the San Francisco ferry, left on a trip to Portland, Ore., from where he will go to Riverside to visit his sister and relatives.

Henry Conserva, the oldest son of Mrs. Nettle Conserva, returned during the week from another trip to China and the Orient. Young Conserva has had many experiences and enjoys traveling to see different parts of the world.

The Kohnke home on First avenue has been sold to parties in San Francisco. After the first of next month Mrs. M. Uchtman and son, Adolph, relatives of Mrs. Joseph H. Kohnke of Kenwood, who are occupying the Kohnke home, will take up their residence in San Francisco.

MISS FRIEDA WILKIE GIVES PARTY TUESDAY AFTERNOON

An afternoon party was tendered a few friends by Miss Frieda Wilkie at the home of her parents on Tuesday. Light refreshments were served and enjoyed by the following: Martha Frahm, Mary Lee, Lucile Chaine, Violet Ver-Linden, Pauline Shinazy, Frieda and Mrs. F. Wilkie and little nephew, Carl.

POPULAR COLMA GIRL WEDS.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at Corpus Christi Church in San Francisco on Saturday afternoon, October 14th, when Miss Albina Chiappari of Colma became the bride of Justin E. Tassaro of San Francisco.

The bridesmaid was Miss Isla Benedetti and Charles Capurro acted as best man. The newlyweds were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts. After the ceremony the young couple departed for Los Angeles on their honeymoon trip, and upon their return will reside in San Francisco.

MANY ATTEND WHIST PARTY GIVEN BY CYPRESS CIRCLE

Quite a number of residents of San Francisco, Daly City, and Colma attended the whist party given by Cypress Circle, No. 14, U. A. O. D., on Tuesday evening at the old Jefferson Hall. The prize winners were: Professor W. J. Savage, first; Mrs. M. Herringa, second; F. R. Greene, third; E. F. Dullea, fourth; G. M. Krehl, fifth; Mrs. Parr, sixth; Mrs. E. Berry, seventh, and Sadie Kelly, consolation prize.

Don't tell your husband "you told him so," it's galling enough for him to remember without being reminded.

GIRLS' CLUB OF COLMA HOLDS INDOOR PICNIC

A hard times indoor picnic took place at the Girls' Club rooms on Dunks street on Thursday evening last week. All the members present were garbed in old clothes.

Music, singing, indoor games, old-fashioned and oriental dances were the chief pastime. Estelle Atkinson's costume, outshining the rainbow in color, won the first prize; Martha Frahm, having the most original costume, won the second prize, while Irene Ver-Linden and Hilda Bocci won the prize for the best old-fashioned waltz. The oriental dancers were Libera Boetto and Hilda Bocci. Refreshments were served and enjoyed by the following: Mrs. James Henderson, Mrs. M. M. Jensen, Mrs. J. Gaestell, Mrs. R. Greene, Mrs. A. Riddell, Mrs. A. Shinazy, Mrs. G. Wright, Estelle Atkinson, Libera Boetto, Hilda Bocci, Lucile Chaine, Martha Frahm, Gussie Kling, Rose May, Bertha Thiel, Anita and Evelyn Lafrance, Irene and Violet Ver-Linden, Elsie and Frieda Wilkie, and Josephine Jensen.

Love Among the Churches.

Dr. Lyman P. Howell gives some examples of the lengths to which petty bitterness between sects will sometimes carry men. "A visitor in a certain town which had four churches and adequately supported none, asked a pillar of one poor dying church, 'How's your church getting on?' 'Not very well,' was the reply, 'but, thank the Lord, the others are not doing any better.'"—Christian Register.

A Sarcasm From the Legit.

"All that the motion picture lacks is the mere matter of human speech," "Well," replied Mr. Stormington Barnes, who never will forget the palmy days, "that's all a deaf and dumb asylum lacks."—Washington Star.

Comparison.

"You know," said the woman whose motor car had run down a man, "you must have been walking very carelessly. I am a very careful driver. I have been driving a car for seven years."

"Lady, you've got nothing on me. I've been walking for fifty-four years."—Detroit News.

Insufficient Excuse.

"Here! What's coming off out there?" yelled Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, Ark., as a wild clamor arose in the yard.

"The baby was playing with my fishing tackle," howled young Bearcat, "and he swallowed a fishhook."

"Well, what the Sam Hill is that for you to make such a hooraw about. Hain't you got no more fishhooks?"

WATCH FOR NEXT WEEK'S ENTERPRISE.

The great body of voters are puzzled over the twenty amendments and propositions that will appear on the ballot November 2d. Their very number is confusing. This paper has been busy for weeks preparing a concise series of articles dealing with the amendments and setting forth what it considers the best way to vote on each. We do not claim to be infallible, but believe the stand which we shall take on each of the propositions is the stand best calculated to make for law, order, and the best interests of the people as a whole. Don't miss getting your paper next week and studying over what we shall say of the amendments.

ENCOURAGING OPEN SHOP.

A warning to building crafts that unless they "resort to reason" and end jurisdictional disputes the unions may be destroyed and the open shop come into vogue, has been issued by President Donlin of the Building Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor.

This is very timely advice to the workmen in such cities as San Francisco, where a building trades tie-up has been threatened by striking plasterers demanding an increase of from $10 to $12 a day.

A plastering contractor in that city says that instead of paying $10 a day he is virtually paying $25 a day because journeymen do less than one-half day's work for a day's pay. Recently a foreman who remonstrated with one of his men for not doing his duty was complained of to the Housewives' Union. This foreman was fined by the union and notified that he could not work at his trade in San Francisco for six months.

This is no time to talk increased wages, and it is such tactics as this that are causing the rapid turn to open-shop conditions in the principal cities of the country.—Industrial News.

SOMETHING GOOD FOR YOU.

Spending this Christmas will be done on a fairly liberal scale, and there is no particular reason why it should not be so. Times are prosperous, money is plentiful, happiness is everywhere, and nobody feels disposed to be either a miser or a grouch.

We have some good stores in this town. Their owners have grown up in our midst and have helped to make the community what it is, a good place to live. They have a reputation for fair dealing, and they live up to the reputation they have earned.

The columns of this paper will be advertising their goods extensively during the holiday trade, and many a choice bargain will be found among those ads. We ask you to read them each. The wise persons never goes abroad for what can be had just as well at home. The sure way is always the safe way, and you are sure of what you get from the home dealer.

Large numbers of Germans of the educated class are coming to the United States to earn a living. The proletariat is in the saddle in Germany, and with their money gone and their titles without value there appears to be nothing left for them but to kiss the hand that smote them. But it's a good hand to kiss.

If there is ever a time when an old toper longs for wings it is when he hears of these whisky pilots flying over from Canada with their airplanes full of booze, and realizes that all he can do is to look and yearn and cuss. Ain't it?

Cheer up. All is not lost. Civilization, we admit, has been sorely cramped, but the world is dotted with many Christian nations—and a few Christians.

A reader insists that it is possible even in these sordid days to get something for nothing. But at that, we fear the something would amount to nothing after we got it.

"Men may vote for this office." Some day we may come to that!

The trouble with some of our uplifters is the fact that they are not up-lookers.

What we need in this country is something that will induce us to make the best of what we have.

Every time a man sees a woman wearing a mosquito netting blouse on a hot summer day he feels just like doing the same thing himself. But modesty forbids.

The fellow who attempts to make something out of nothing sometimes succeeds—to his cost.

If given their choice between a life of happiness and one of sorrow, some people would be so greedy they would want both.

Just sliding through life is a dangerous practice, and often painful. The pathway is strewn with obstacles and pitfalls, and sometimes with slivers.

The old practice of going about with a chip on one's shoulder has about died out. Too much danger of profiteers getting the chips.

A beautiful woman never has to angle for admiration, but a good one often fails to command respect.

It is not always wise to judge a stranger to be a fool because he acts like one. He may be leading you on to sting you in the end.

Don't slip through life at too strenuous a pace. You may slip a cog and slip out at the same speed.

We can not expect fortune to smile upon us at all times. A little co-operation is expected from us.

Little children see the faults of others as they are, but often we adults see them as we would like them to be.

A wise man never speaks of his wisdom, but the fool seldom fails to advertise his own folly.

Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals for the purchase of certain improvement bonds of the City of South San Francisco will be received by the Board of Trustees of the City of South San Francisco up to the hour of eight o'clock p. m. on Monday, the 1st day of November, 1920, and will be opened by said Board at that time. The bonds offered are improvement bonds issued by virtue of the provisions of the "Improvement Bond Act of 1915," and the amendments thereto, and represent and are secured by assessments made to pay the costs of the improvements on that portion of Swift Avenue from a line drawn at right angles to the center line of said Swift Avenue at a point Three Thousand Seven Hundred Ninety (3790) feet easterly along the center line of said Swift Avenue from the intersection of the center line of Grand Avenue with the center line of Swift Avenue, to the easterly termination of said Swift Avenue, in said City of South San Francisco, fully described in Resolution of Intention No. 39, passed by the Board of Trustees on the 4th day of October, 1919, to which reference is hereby made, under proceedings taken in pursuance of the "Improvement Act of 1915," and the amendments thereto, and are described as follows:

Bond Numbers.	Denominations.	Date of Maturity.
1	$917.13	July 2, 1922
2	917.15	July 2, 1923
3	917.15	July 2, 1924
4	917.15	July 2, 1925
5	917.15	July 2, 1926
6	917.15	July 2, 1927
7	917.15	July 2, 1928
8	917.15	July 2, 1929
9	917.15	July 2, 1930
10	917.15	July 2, 1931

Said bonds are dated October 4, 1920, and bear interest at the rate of seven (7) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, by coupon, at the office of the Treasurer of the City of South San Francisco, January 2nd, and July 2nd, respectively, of each year; provided, that the first payment of interest shall not become due until six (6) months before the maturity of the first annual series of said bonds. Said bonds, under the law, are exempt from all taxation in the State of California.

No bids will be considered for less than par and accrued interest to the date of delivery, and said Board of Trustees reserves the right to reject any and all unsatisfactory bids.

All bids shall be sealed, endorsed "Proposal for the purchase of bonds" and filed with the City Clerk of said City; also each bid shall be accompanied by a deposit or certified check for $25 (10) per cent of the amount of the bid, payable to said City of South San Francisco, which shall be forfeited to said City in case the bidder fails to pay for any bonds awarded to him.

By order of Board of Trustees of the City of South San Francisco,
Dated October 4, 1920.
DANIEL McSWEENEY,
City Clerk.

ENTERTAIN FOR MRS. CROCKER.

Mr. and Mrs. Stolenberg entertained with a dinner party at their home on Miller avenue this week, the affair being a farewell for Mrs. Geo. Crocker, who has departed for her home in Seattle. Mrs. Crocker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kay of this city.

Why do some people wear furs on a hot summer day, you ask? Very simple. It's about the only way they can induce other people to notice them, now that hosiery displays are becoming a drug in the market.

We advise every man and woman to exercise their inalienable right of franchise and vote exactly as they please in the coming national election. But we hope they please to vote as we do.

No Progress.

"No, sah, Ah doan neber ride on dem things," said an old colored lady looking at the merry-go-round. "Why, do odder day Al seed dat Rastus Johnson git on an' ride as much as a dollah's wuth an' git off at the very same place he got on at, and I sez to him, 'Rastus,' I sez, 'yo spent yo money, but whar yo been?'"—Exchange.

HATS SMILE AT WINTER

The young daughters of smart mothers will wear lovely beaver and felt hats this winter, trimmed with handsome ribbon. Two hats in the long-napped variety appear above. Below them are two pretty fabric hats, both made of velvet. One of them is finished with yarn needlework and the other with a ribbon sash.

TYPICAL OF NEW STYLES

In the company of blouses and smocks for fall are found new models made of taffeta silk that are original and pretty—and originality is a great asset just now. Here is one of them that is sure to interest those who are looking for something new and sure to please everyone who can appreciate its beauty.

VOGUE OF HIGH COLLARS

It seems a waste of time to look for anything handsomer in suits than the graceful model shown here. Imagine it in grayish blue, or pigeon blue, with embroidery to match and a tall collar of squirrel fur.

TALK ON ALASKA.

Instead of a sermon Sunday morning, Mr. Molony, who spent three years in Alaska, will talk on the life there with special reference to the recent deaths of Augustus R. Hoareft, Point Hope, Bering Sea, and Archdeacon Hudson Steele of Fort Yukon.

COAT WITH FUR COLLAR

Even before they enter their teens, some little maids are lucky enough to possess a warm, brown coat with a fur collar like that worn by the fortunate young person pictured here. Squirrel or rabbit provides the cozy fur.

MRS. WOODMAN PLANS PARTY FOR DAUGHTER'S BIRTHDAY

Mrs. E. I. Woodman will give a birthday dinner this evening for her daughter, Mrs. Henry D. Cushing. Those present will be: Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. H. Rolff and family, Ralph, Arthur, and Lyle Woodman, the affair being in the nature of a family reunion.

MISS MILDRED ROBINSON WEDS IN LOS ANGELES

Miss Mildred Robinson, niece of Mrs. E. C. Peck of this city and a former resident of South San Francisco, was married October 15th at a pretty wedding which took place at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Robinson, in Los Angeles. The bridegroom was Alfred Lockyer of Los Angeles. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion in pink and white, and the ceremony took place under a beautiful floral bell of the same colors. A reception followed the ceremony, after which the happy couple departed for Catalina Island on their honeymoon. They will make their home in Los Angeles. Mrs. Peck and several relatives from the bay region went south to the ceremony. Little Janette Terrace, Mrs. Peck's niece, acted as flower girl.

MISS HEIN ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT TO MONT. MAN

Miss Viola Hein made formal announcement of her engagement to C. Louis Dunklee of Butte, Mont., on Monday evening to a group of her friends. Mr. Dunklee and Miss Hein met in the East, where Mr. Dunklee was attending college. Later he served in the balloon section of the air service and since his return has been engaged in mining engineering in Montana.

The announcement was made at the supper table. At each place a card attached by a ribbon to a small bag of rice told the news. Each guest had a boutonniere in the colors of the table decorations, consisting of pink baby roses, ribbon, moline and maidenhair.

The guests were: Misses Beatrice Eikerkotter, Grace Martin, Maybelle Spellman, Mabel McColm, Norma Belli, Lolita Kelley, Mary Kauffmann, Alice Stearns, Mary Bentley, Rue Clifford and Messrs. Thomas Kay, Donald Gray, James McMills, C. Louis Dunklee and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Myles.

METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR

At a meeting of the Sunday school board of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church Wednesday evening, the following officers and teachers were elected for the conference year: Superintendent, A. A. Whitten; secretary, Miss Mary Kauffmann; treasurer, Mrs. Caroline Coffinberry; organist, Alexis James; missionary superintendent, Miss Este Coffinberry; chorister, Miss Alice Stearns. The teachers are: Adult class, Rhine Fakkema; intermediate class, boys, Rev. Daniel Stevens; girls, Mrs. Caroline Coffinberry; junior class, third year, Mrs. A. A. Whitten; second year, Mrs. H. J. James; primary class, second year, boys, Mrs. H. N. Standley; girls, Miss Alice Stearns; first year, Mrs. D. H. Duncan; beginners' class, Miss Edith Borner.

PRACTICAL RECIPES

WHY WORRY ABOUT SUGAR? MAKE THIS HONEY CAKE

Honey cakes have the advantage over other cakes of keeping fresh much longer. The following one, which is excellent, is recommended by food specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture:

½ cup butter.
1 cup honey.
1 egg.
½ cup sour milk.
1 teaspoon soda.
½ teaspoon cinnamon.
½ teaspoon ginger.
4 cups flour.

Rub the butter and honey together; add the egg well beaten, then the sour milk and the flour sifted with the soda and spices. Bake in a shallow pan.

POTATOES AND MEAT IN ATTRACTIVE COMBINATION

In place of the pastry crust for meat pies, a mashed potato crust is sometimes a pleasant change. This makes an attractive way of serving meat and potatoes together instead of as two separate dishes.

Shepherd's Pie.—Line a dish around the sides with mashed potatoes prepared as for the table, then fill with minced lamb, veal or any other leftover meat, well seasoned and mixed with a little gravy.

Cover the top with mashed potatoes and criss cross with a knife. Put in oven and heat until hot through and well browned on top.

MANY WAYS TO COOK MEAT AT A LOW TEMPERATURE

Tough pieces of meat are as nutritious as the more tender cuts and can be made quite as appetizing, but they require long cooking at a low temperature. There are many ways of cooking meat in water without allowing it to reach the boiling point, culinary experts in the United States Department of Agriculture affirm. With the ordinary kitchen range this is accomplished by searing the meat until brown to develop the flavor, then cooking on the cooler part of the stove rather than on the hottest part directly over the fire.

Experience with a gas stove, particularly if it has a small burner known as a "simmerer," usually enables the cook to maintain temperatures which will make it tender without hardening the fibers. The possibilities of the double boiler for this purpose seem to have been neglected. Its contents can easily be kept up to a temperature of 200 F. and nothing will burn.

Another method is by means of the fireless cooker. In this a high temperature can be maintained for a long time without the application of fresh heat. Still another method is by means of a closely covered baking dish. Earthenware dishes of this kind suitable for serving foods as well as for cooking are known as casseroles. For cooking purposes a baking dish covered with a plate or a bean jar covered with a saucer may be substituted.

The Dutch oven or cast-iron pot with a heavy close-fitting top is an excellent utensil for the long cooking of meats.

Help your home town. Trade at home.

MRS. VALENCIA GIVES PARTY FOR HUSBAND'S BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Blanche Valencia entertained a number of her friends at a dinner party given at her home on Spruce avenue in honor of Mr. Valencia's birthday, Sunday, October 17th. The afternoon was spent in games and dancing.

NOTIZIE DALLA CONTEA IN ITALIANO.

PROBLEMI E SCOPPI
DELL'ITALIAN-AMERICAN CITIZENS' CLUB

Ormai noto a tutti dell'esistenza del Club dei Cittadini Italo-Americani, a tutti è palese la sua forza politica e morale in questa piccola borgata.

Quasi quattro anni son trascorsi dalla sua fondazione e merco l'opera assidua di alcuni volenterosi seppero conquistarsi una posizione invidiabile, nonché la simpatia dell'elemento americano.

Nelle ultime elezioni amministrative, grazie la comparsa di tutti i suoi membri si è ottenuta una grande vittoria elettorale, mandando per la prima volta un nostro connazionale a far parte all'amministrazione municipale di South San Francisco. Ma ciò non basta. Nelle sue ultime riunioni si discusse ampiamente sulla linea di condotta da tenersi in occasione delle prossime elezioni politiche, e con voto unanime si deliberò di appoggiare il programma e votare compatti per i candidati del partito repubblicano.

Il desiderio di partecipare alla vita politica di questa grande nazione si fa ogni giorno sempre più vivo fra i nostri connazionali per le prime e seconde carte per la cittadinanza americana che continuamente vengono registrate all'archivio della contea.

Questo movimento di Americanizzazione è indice di sviluppo intellettuale che eleva il nostro umile bracciante all'altezza di ogni altro cittadino, col diritto di partecipare alle decisioni dei grandi problemi politici ed economici di questa nostra grande patria adottiva.

E' fuor di dubbio che se tutti gli italiani stabiliti negli Stati Uniti avessero avuto il diritto al voto, a quest'ora, probabilmente, non avessimo da lamentare le conseguenze del proibizionismo.

Dunque, tutto sta a noi. Più attività ci faremo vedere nella vita pubblica e più rispetti saremo dagli americani. Se continueremo a mantenerci inerti ed apatici alla politica di questo grande paese, saremo sempre considerati per strumenti di lavoro e di sfruttamento.

Italiani, ricordatevi che l'America ha bisogno delle nostre braccia. Sta a noi di usare la nostra intelligenza, per conquistare quelle posizioni nella classe dirigente proporzionalmente al nostro numero. Uniformiamoci all'ambiente. Sacrifichiamo qualche partita al biliardo o alle carte per studiare l'inglese. Frequentiamo le scuole pubbliche e leggiamo i giornali americani. Interessiamoci nelle cose di politica e frequentiamo le riunioni pubbliche. Non importa se non comprendiamo tutto. A poco per volta s'imparerà e nel medesimo tempo facciamo vedere la nostra buona volontà di azione.

Il Club dei cittadini Italo-Americani è sempre stato e sarà in futuro a disposizione di quei connazionali che intendono di farsi cittadini americani. Il suo scopo è appunto quello di facilitare le pratiche inerenti alla naturalizzazione.

E concludendo si fa invito a tutti quei connazionali che intendono di farsi cittadini a presentarsi alla sede sociale (city hall) al secondo giovedì d'ogni mese alle ore 8 di sera.

E. R.

A word to the wise: ADVERTISE

TRUSTEES APPROVANO DI DEDICARE L'11 NOVEMBRE AL PALAZZO MUNICIPALE

I piani sono ora formati per avere una grande cerimonia dedicatoria al nuovo palazzo municipale in congiunzione colla celebrazione della Legione Americana nell'anniversario del giorno dell'armistizio.

Delegazione dal Club Femminile, dalla Legione Americana e dalla Camera di Commercio, si unirono coi Trustees della città. Lunedì sera e fecero i piani preliminari per uno dei più grandi affari del quale genere la contea di San Mateo non ha mai veduto.

Eminent oratori saranno pronti per gli esercizi; vi sarà un corteo con carri ad una banda e probabilmente un grande ballo durante il pomeriggio e la sera.

Il City Clerk McSweeney, l'ufficiale sanitario McGovern ed l'ingegnere della città Kneese furono appuntati in un comitato per rappresentare questa città alla convenzione della lega delle Municipalità a Chico da Novembre 8 al 11 del medesimo.

Una comunicazione fu ricevuta dai Trustees della città, della Pacific Gas and Electric Co., stando che causa le recenti piogge tutte le restrizioni sull'uso della forza elettrica sono ora tolte.

IL CORPO DI UN UOMO TROVATO SULLA SPIAGGIA DI THORNTON

I poliziotti di San Mateo e San Francisco questa settimana stanno lavorando su di un miseroso caso, cioè quello d'identificare e trovare la ragione di morte di un giovane uomo, il corpo del quale fu trovato sulla spiaggia di Thornton Mercoledì dopo mezzogiorno.

Il corpo del giovane uomo fu trasportato alla stanza mortuaria di Lasswell a Daly City dal constabile Landini e dal deputato Lasswell e tuttora è tenuto, aspettandosi per la di lui identificazione.

L'uomo, apparentemente di 25 anni di età, vestiva decentemente.

Il corpo fu trovato da Thomas Crawford tenente del Thornton light house. Crawford aveva veduto l'uomo in compagnia di una donna camminare sulla spiaggia, tardi Mercoledì sera.

Il corpo dell'uomo, Mercoledì quando fu trovato aveva un buco di proiettile nella tempia destra.

Nessuna traccia della donna è stata finora potuta trovare.

Sembra apparentemente che il corpo sia stato nell'acqua per circa otto ore.

Angel and Dickie.

The young housewife, looking very pretty and workmanlike in a big green overall, was cleaning out the pantry cupboard.

"Dickie," she called to her young husband, who was smoking in the spick-and-span little drawing room, "I want you to bring me a mouse trap home tomorrow."

"But, angel," cried the young man, "I brought you one home only yesterday."

"I know, pet," called back the young bride, "but that one has a mouse in it."—Spanish River News.

Easy Solution.

Mistress—Bridget, you've broken as much china this month as your wages amount to. Now how can we prevent this occurring again?

Bridget—Oh don't know, mum, unless you raise me wages.—Edinburgh Scotsman.

Mr. Business Man!

—Can you imagine a large metropolitan 10-story mercantile concern using a 2x4 card reading "JOHN SMITH & CO.—Dry Goods and Shoes. We solicit your patronage"? Can you imagine this?

—Can you imagine such a concern to even have to be begged for such an ornery, little, good-for-nothing ad like this? Can you imagine it?

—Can you imagine this kind of an organization saying: "Oh, everyone knows who we are and where we are. We don't need to advertise"? Can you imagine it?

—Can you imagine such a gigantic business declaring they had tried advertising with these 2x4 cards and that the results proved advertising was no good? Can you imagine such a thing?

—Can you imagine these big city fellows putting $5 or $10 per month into advertising "just to help the newspaper out"? We say—can you imagine it?

—If you can't—why expect such methods to succeed in smaller communities? Your people are just as intelligent and you have a Newspaper which covers your trading territory just as thoroughly. The only thing you lack is the "get-busy-and-act" spirit that it takes to do anything really big.

Advertising ALWAYS Pays—if you advertise intelligently.

A HISTORY

The First Sunday School and First Church Building.

In 1894 Rev. George Wallace, an Episcopal clergyman and principal of St. Margaret's school at San Mateo, opened a Sunday school in South San Francisco, in a vacant building at the northeast corner of Grand and Maple avenues. To this primitive pioneer Sunday school the children gathered every Sunday morning from every quarter of the town and country. The door was open to all; none were barred by reason of either belief or unbelief, the children came to the school from the homes of Episcopalians and Methodists, Presbyterians and Baptists, Jews and Gentiles; all were admitted, all welcomed and all instructed.

Finding his Sunday school work approved and very generally supported by the people of South San Francisco, Mr. Wallace added a regular church service every Sunday to his Sunday school work, and thereafter there was an Episcopal church service and a Sunday school every Sunday at the corner of Grand and Maple avenues.

In all his work for the moral and spiritual welfare of the children and people of the new city, Mr. Wallace was very faithfully and effectively supported and assisted by Mrs. W. J. Martin. It was all volunteer missionary work, and the Rev. Mr. Wallace and Mrs. Martin were in truth missionaries of the good, old-fashioned pioneer type.

For two years, in foul as well as in fair weather, Rev. Mr. Wallace came all the way from San Mateo every Sunday, faithfully and regularly, and served the people of the new city without pay or recompense other than the people's gratitude and love and his own sense of satisfaction in doing good. The fine spirit of self-sacrifice shown in the long-continued welfare work of Rev. George Wallace and Mrs. W. J. Martin gave both a place in the hearts of the pioneers of this city, from which neither the passage of time nor life's changes can ever displace them.

The unselfish work of the missionaries set the people to thinking about a more suitable and permanent building for Sunday school and church services. On November 23, 1895, The Enterprise (then but two weeks old) sounded the first note for a church building in South San Francisco in the following brief editorial:

"The advent of the church spire in this place is an event anxiously looked for by our people.

"Our town is big enough and bad enough to entitle it to such an institution. We number seven hundred souls and nine bar-rooms within our borders. We have stores, shops, halls, saloons, and a fine schoolhouse; in fact, all the adjuncts of a modern town save a church.

"Who will be the pioneer in church building? Whoever undertakes the good work will, we are confident, have the united support of all our people."

General discussion followed this publication. At first Rev. Mr. Wallace hesitated, fearing failure in an attempt at financing such an undertaking, but was finally persuaded to consent to having a meeting called to consider the subject, and on Sunday, January 19, 1896, at 4:15 p. m., a meeting was held at pioneer hall to consider the erection of a church building upon the Episcopal church lot at the corner of Grand and Spruce avenues, at which meeting the proceedings were as follows: On motion, the meeting effected a temporary organization by electing Rev. George Wallace president; E. E. Cunningham, vice-president; H. B. Maggs, secretary, and George R. Sneath, treasurer. The following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That those persons present organize themselves into a society for the purpose of building an Episcopal church in South San Francisco."

The temporary officers were then made permanent officers of the society and a committee of three was named to secure funds for a church building, consisting of W. J. Martin, R. K. Patchell, and Charles Johnson. Upon motion, the officers of the church building society, together with the members of the committee appointed to secure funds for a church building, were appointed and declared an executive committee to have charge of the business of the church building.

Action was taken at once by the church building society; the executive committee secured plans, from which the plan of the building as it stands today was adopted; estimates were made of the cost of the building and its furnishings. The committee to secure funds began work immediately, and within a few weeks work on the building was commenced.

When the new church had been completed, about the 1st of December, 1896, the reports of the committees showed that the building and its furnishings represented an expenditure of something over $1600. Of this sum, the residents of the town and adjacent districts contributed $695.75, personal subscriptions by members of the building society were $175, the South San Francisco Land and Improvement Company donated the lot and $150 cash, residents of Redwood City gave $100, residents of San Mateo $40, residents of San Francisco $170, friends of Rev. George Wallace $80; the American Church Building Fund of New York City, $100; residents of Alameda, $55, and residents of other places, $10. The handsome chandeliers were the gift of G. W. Bennett of Alameda. The Sunday school children paid for the decoration of the chancel window. The Woman's Auxiliary Missionary Society of the diocese of California made gifts of a handsome communion service in silver, a surplice, and altar cloths.

The funds were raised in a little town of working men, in a year of unusual business stagnation and financial depression, an achievement of which the church building society was justly proud when they were able to offer the pretty little edifice and its furnishings to Rev. George Wallace free from debt. Coupled with their feeling of pride, there was an acknowledgment of the great and grateful debt the society and the people of the community owed the Rev. George Wallace, whose constant, faithful, and self-sacrificing labors had made the building of the church possible.

On Sunday, December 13, 1896, at 4 o'clock p. m., the Protestant Episcopal church of South San Francisco was dedicated by Right Rev. Bishop Nichols, with Rev. George Wallace as pastor in charge.

A Lazy Story.

At a recent dinner a number of people were telling of the laziest persons they had ever met or heard of. Some interesting specimens of the genus home-lazibones were discussed, but the final story, we think, takes the prize. The story preceding it was as follows:

"The laziest man I ever knew," said one young fellow, "was Bill Smythe. He was so lazy that when he started into a building he would get within the revolving door and wait for somebody to come along and revolve it."

"That man was as busy as a bee compared to Hank Perkins, down in Arkansas," said another young man. "Hank was given up to be the laziest man in the United States. He was so lazy he wouldn't get out of the sun when it was hot, or out of the rain when it was wet. One day Hank was sitting on the porch with his wife. As it happened, his back was to the road. A prominent farmer had just died, and the funeral procession passed Hank's house. The deceased was a man of considerable influence, and the procession was a long one. After it had passed the wife said, 'That was a mighty fine procession, Hank.' 'Yes, I guess it must 'a' been,' said Hank. 'I would 'a' liked to 'a' seed it, but I was settin' wrong!'"—Dallas (Ga.) ### Diplomacy.

Willis—You don't mean to say you've kept a servant girl ten years? How do you do it?

Gillis—Diplomacy. The first girl we had we called a "kitchen mechanic." She stayed a day. The next one we called a "hired girl." She stayed a week. The next one we called a "maid" and she stayed a month. Then in 1910 we got this one and called her a "Domestic Secretary" and she's been with us ever since.—Judge.

Mutual.

"Dear May," wrote the young man who had been turned down the night before and craved vengeance. "Last night I proposed to you, but really have forgotten whether you said yes or no. These little things slip one's mind so."

"Dear Will," she wrote back, "I was so glad to get your letter. I remember having said no to some one last night, but had forgotten to whom. These little things certainly do."—American Legion Weekly.

LISSETTE

By MILDRED WHITE.

(© 1920, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Lisette came thoughtfully up through the old garden that was fragrant with memories. It was here that she had grown to young womanhood under Aunt Martha's care. Now that Aunt Martha was gone forever, Lisette in her busy city life, felt that she must go back to stay in the place until affairs should be settled and past debts paid.

The old rambling house with green shutters was dearly familiar—the apple tree beneath which she had swung to and fro. Tilly, white-aproned, waited in the doorway—Aunt Martha alone was absent. It was a joy to sit before the living room fire at evening—a joy to sleep in the chintz-decked bedroom; but the following afternoon of a rainy day dragged drearily. Lisette did not want so much to think of Aunt Martha, she wanted to occupy her mind, and to bring back in memory the happy days of long ago; so she went into the sunny kitchen, and with Tilly industriously mending near by Lisette gathered together the ingredients for candy making—Aunt Martha's delicious old-fashioned candies, which she, as a little girl had tied in dainty gift packages for favored friends. The candy bubbled and cooled in the making, and Lisette's own cheeks were as red as the sugared cherries, the tendrils of her hair as golden as the maple sirup; cheerily Lisette hummed as she worked, while the rain beat against the windows. A motor car crunching down the drive came to a stop before her kitchen window, while the driver springing out and up the steps through the rain, knocked at the kitchen door.

"Beg pardon," he said, "but we have been overtaken in the storm, the breeze is pretty stiff, and I wondered if the ladies might be allowed to step inside, they are damp and chilly." Lisette liked the young man's frank face, also his pleasing voice was reassuring. "Certainly, bring them in," she invited; "Tilly will put a log on the fire."

The elder of the two ladies was most grateful for the hospitality. She was a brisk, bright-eyed old lady, while the younger one, in her bright-eyed freshness, was a picture of what the older lady had been. They introduced themselves as Mrs. and Miss Carte, the young man whose name appeared to be Neil Strong, addressed the younger woman as "Gladdy." They were merry together about the fireplace, and Lisette came with a smile to offer them her finished candies. So delighted were they, and friendly altogether, that Lisette tied up for them as the hours passed a dainty packet of candy to carry home, as Aunt Martha had taught her to do in days past. And before they left her visitors made the suggestion which would enable her to solve her present living problem.

"Why don't you," asked Mrs. Carte, "make enough of this wonderful candy to sell at a good price to certain patrons. I myself will be a regular customer."

"And we can send you many others," Miss Gladly added eagerly. Neil Strong settled the question. "I could order some trial boxes for you with 'Lisette' engraved on the covers," he said; it all sounded so inviting that Lisette enthused to the prospect.

"Neil will come later in the week, to get more candy for me," the girl said.

He remembered astonishingly well. Tuesday and Thursday afternoons never failed to bring to the old house Neil Strong in his car; and always with the order for Miss Gladly he brought other orders. Lisette's trade grew amazingly.

Strangely enough as time passed Lisette found herself wondering as she mixed her candies in the big kitchen at the comparisons of life. Here was she working over a hot fire, with no real home and no friends in particular, while there, protected and beloved, was Gladly. There was no rancor in Lisette's thought, just a sort of wistfulness at her own lack of joy. Perhaps Neil Strong's fine face may have been responsible for the wistfulness. Anyway Lisette decided that she was not going to see him again. One might become unwisely accustomed to the comfort of a sympathetic personality, even when that personality was vowed to another. Hereafter Tilly should meet Mr. Strong and deliver the candies. The fifth of November would be soon in coming—so thought Lisette, and the fire alone was not responsible for the flush which dyed her cheeks. But Neil came unawares; she was in the garden plucking a yellow chrysanthemum to tie over the golden letters of "Lisette" on Gladly's candy box, when he found her.

"And what," asked Neil Strong abruptly, "am I to do when I can no longer come for Gladly's candy? Will you bear with me for myself, dear?"

Lisette gasped.

"I do not understand you," she answered with dignity.

"I think you do understand," Neil gently corrected, "that I love you, Lisette. You must know that. And so when my cousin Gladly is married to James Brent you will still let me come, until we can arrange to fix up this place—for ourselves, dear. You love the old house and garden, Lisette, and I have hoped that you love me."

"I do," the girl answered simply.

So Lisette's story is told!

Farming Is a Business

And like every business, it requires forms, records and blanks that give you the facts about your farm, just as a business man has them about his business.

We print forms and letterheads (every business farmer should have his own letterhead) on Hammermill Bond, the Utility Business Paper.

COMMISSION SETS OCT. 26 TO HEAR RAILWAY PETITION

The Railroad Commission has set October 26th for the hearing of the petition of the South San Francisco Belt Railway for an order to increase its rates for switching carload traffic at South San Francisco.

According to the company's application its operating deficit for the year ending December 31, 1919, was $25,784.16, and from January 1, 1920, to April 30th, its operating expenses exceeded its revenues by $7946.24. The company says its present rates are extremely low and that the proposed rate will simply bring its charges up to those collected elsewhere for a similar service. In the year ending December 31, 1919, the company switched 9120 cars, at an average rate of $1.51, according to the application.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT WRITES ON AMENDMENT 16

Editor Enterprise: While experimenting with figures for next year's school budget, I discovered the following good reason for voting yes on proposition number 16:

Under present laws we will receive
From the state.....$12,000
From the county.....21,000
30 cent tax on district, about... 8,000
Total .....$41,000
Under the proposed law we will receive
From the state.....$21,000
From the county.....21,000
No district tax.....

Total .....$42,000
As you see, therefore, our school tax can be reduced 30 cents on the $100 and yet actually have $1000 more for our schools.

The money from the state comes from tax on corporations and not from small property owners. As a matter of fact, the recent 20 per cent increase granted the railroads will furnish nearly all the money the state will require to meet the demand of the proposed law.

It seems to me to be a straight-out gift of approximately $9000 annually to the district. Shall we accept it? Vote yes on amendment 16.

Yours truly,

LEWIS E. ADAMS.

THANKS ENTERPRISE.

Editor Enterprise: The Students' Amendment 12 County Organization have asked me to express their appreciation to you for giving publicity in a recent issue of your paper to an article asking the people to co-operate in keeping education free and in providing a steady and permanent income in keeping with the greatly increased enrollment in all branches of the university, by voting "Yes" on amendment 12 November 2d.

Very truly yours,

JOHN A. MCKEE,

Chairman Student County Organization.

BEACH TRAGEDY.

beach the evening before the body was found. The man had a revolver in his hand, according to Crawford, and it would seem that without doubt this is the man whose body was found next day.

Dr. Rankin declares it as his theory, based on the condition of the body, the amount of water in the lungs, etc., that the man waded out far into the surf and shot himself.

JOHN HANLON GETS FREE TICKETS TO ROYAL

John Hanlon, who lives at 407 Grand avenue, was the fortunate finder of the missing letter in the advertisements last week and went to the Royal Theater as the guest of The Enterprise.

A score of others found the right word, too, but John was "Johnny on the Spot" and the first arrival at The Enterprise office with the advertisement that had one letter gone.

Today there is another ad with one letter missing. Try your luck at finding it, and when you have located it tary not but hie to The Enterprise office with the advertisement in your possession. There will be others looking for the word with the missing letter and "you'll have to hurry." Two tickets to the Royal Theater are waiting for the first person to bring in the ad.

The "cat step" is the latest thing in dancing. But the four-legged cats can't help it—poor things.
